Hi Maddy:

Sorry I missed your calls. I actually had to go to court today (Mike and the guys must think I really don't work) and I've been away from my desk till now.

No rush on the doors, like I said, sometime this summer would be nice.

Are you taking testimonials on a web site or anything like that? I already told one of my girlfriends what a wonderful job you guys did and how nice all the guys were. She is planning to finish a basement sometime so maybe she'll keep you guys in mind!

Regards,

Patricia A. Concannon, Esq.
